MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 18.-Rosa E. Barnes, daughter of Manager John S. Barnes, of the Minneapolis Baseball Association, has asked the court to appoint a receiver for that body. In her complaint she charges President Martin with misappropriation of funds and states that Thomas Murphy has continued to act as treasurer since suspended by the Western League. She claims the ownership of $1,800 worth of stock in the association, on which, she says, she has received no dividends, though she alleges that earnings have been greatly in excess of expenses. Nash Barnes, a brother of Manager Barnes, has also sued to recover $2,000 alleged to be due the latter as salary and to have been assigned to him. He has garnished the bank account of the association for the amount. A temporary injunction against the management has been granted by Judge Smith in connection with the former action, and the hearing on the motion for a receiver is was an easy mark. Score: G. Rapids....0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 2-4 7 Batteries-Stephens and Bolan; Petty and Western Association.

Wallace let Brooklyn have only six hits yesterday, while Cleveland took fifteen from Gumbert and Stein. Anson doesn't seem to have been hurt so badly as Wednesday night's dispatches indi-cated. He was able to make the only twoagger in yesterday's game.

Sam Thompson was the only "Quaker" who showed any desire to fight the "Pirates" yesterday. He banged Mr. Hawley a couple of times before surrendering.

Firstbaseman Doyle, of New York, made a good record yesterday. He got four hits, scored twice, put out thirteen "Colonels," participated in two double plays, stole three bases and made no errors. It is said that Jimmy Ryan, the well-known rightfielder of the Chicago club, has been seen in a Chicago uniform for the last time. An effort is being made to exchange him for a first-class pitcher. The "Pirates" lost none of their blood-thirstiness by their few days of inaction. Yesterday they captured the "Quakers," hanged and quartered Carsey almost with-out warning and then proceeded to slowly put out the light of Mr. Lampe.

The "Senators" stopped off at Terre Haute, yesterday, to show Denny Long's 'Hottentots' how to play the great American game. The Western Leaguers proved apt pupils. AZOTE TO RIVAL ALIX.

Great Praise for the Gelding by His Trainer, J. G. Morgan. Horses have their peculiarities, and J. G. Morgan, the trainer of Azote, says the son of Whips is no exception to the rule, according to the Chicago News. "He is an affectionate fellow," said Mr. Morgan, "and wants to be on good terms with everybody. When he becomes well acquainted with any one he insists, if he is well treated, on being very friendly with him. Azote is very intelligent, and has an active mind. Why, he will not eat during the day, for good. Then he eats little for two days after a race, but comes around of his own accord. In fact, he wants a five days' rest between his races. I always humored him and never urged him to eat until his appetite returned.

"One thing about the old horse is that he does not want a heavy-handed driver. He has a fine mouth and will not stand being driven under a pull. All that is required is to handle him easy and he'll drive him-"His best race last year was in the Iransylvania stakes at Lexington, Ky., in October, which he won very handily in 2:08%, 2:09% and 2:09%. We had come down from Nashville and Ryland T. had beaten us up there, Mr. Salisbury was in the East handling Aiix for her race with Directum. handling Alix for her race with Directum. I did not like the way the old horse was beaten and when Mr. Salisbury came back I told him that Azote would be fit to race for his life at Lexington. He told me to go ahead and fit him, and I did. Now the Boston people came down with Ralph Wilkes, and he was a great horse—there was no doubt of that. But the starting was tedious—in fact, they scored twenty-one times and he became unsteady. As for one times and he became unsteady. As for Azote, he was overlooked, as Gen. John Turner would say. Why, the books had him 4 to 1, and in the auction pools he sold for $5 in a $75 pool. Now I'll money than any man following the trot-ters. I took all those bets and pools I could get. Azote took the race, with Dan Cupid second, Trevillian third; then came such good ones as Alar, Aunt Deillah, Heir at Law, while Ralph Wilkes was distanced. But I don't think he could have beaten Azote on that day. The old horse could have gone three heats faster than "Why, I always backed Azote, starting judge, McCarthy, was at LaCrosse and said that the race between Azote and Kid McCoy's Appearance, Fantasy would be a cake-walk for the mare. Well, I went up to him and informed him that I'd bet $1,000 she would not win. Then he went over and talked with the Hamlins. Finally Harry Hamlin came up to me and said it was better to bet in the books. Distance was not waived with Azote and Fantasy had to trot on her mer-

"How fast is Azote?"
"The fastest trotter on earth. He is be "The fastest trotter on earth. He is better than Alix ever was, and she was pretty good last summer. The horse has never been forced out in any of his races and can go the half any day in a minute. If they keep him fit he is certain to win everything he starts for. Why, in the Transylvania stakes there was Ralph Wilkes, 2:06%; Alar, 2:11; Dan Cupid, 2:09%; Trevillian, 2:08%—a pretty good field—and not one of them could make him trot. He is better this year than ever and the best horse in the Salisbury string."

CINCINNATI, July 18.-The Brewers' stakes, at Oakley, to-day, was the best six furlongs ever run in the West. The Harry O'Fallon gelding, O'Connell, won it rather easily at the finish length from Caesarian, making new record at the distance over a regulation mile track. RIVAL HEIRS TO AN ESTATE.

Miss Wilkes Thinks She Should Be Awarded Capt. Clark's Wealth.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.-After waiting nearly twenty years to find the heirs to the estate of Capt. Fred G. Clark, who was los with the bark Dagmar in 1877, a lively contest is soon to begin, in which two Eastern women are to appear as rival claimants. Friends of the Captain say it was his expressed wish that his property should go to in the event of his death, but Miss C. Wilkes, of Alabama, asserts that she is his sister, and has employed a lawyer to prosecute her claims. Miss Wilkes says that the true name of Captain Clark was James Pinckney Wilkes; that during the civil war her brother enlisted in the federa army and was taken sick in Memphis Tenn., and was left there to die. Recover ing, he was on his way to his home in Alabama when captured by one Tom Clark and his notorious gang of freebooters, who raided the surrounding country, seizing anything of value they could find, torturing their victims, and frequently slaying those who offered resistance. Tom Clark, who, as Wilkes's neighbor, had known him as a fearless lad, induced him by threats and promises to become one of his band of Mayor Curtis, of Boston, is interested the estate of the late Captain's sweetheart, Nellie Ormonde. Her brother James Or-monde, now a Boston millionaire, and Curtis served together in the war.

In the race of the senior doubles the Harlems caught the water first, Torontos rowing 38, the Rat Portage 40 and the Harlems 36. At the half the Torontos were slightly ahead, followed closely by Rat Portage and the Harlems. At the stretch the Harlems and Rat Portage were on almost equal terms. The latter spurted, but the New Yorkers were game and crossed the line half a length ahead, Hawkins dropping over into the boat exhausted, while Nagle splashed him with water. The Torontos were about four lengths behind in crossing third. Time, 8:43.

Intermediate Singles—All three crews started in this race. Jury caught the water first, and though Fisher, of the Varunas, nearly caught a "crab" the first time his blade struck the water, he picked up and went on. At the mile Jury was two off his course to the left of Jury's water All the men were spent and pulled list-lessly. At the finish Jury spurted a little and crossed the line fully five lengths ahead of Fisher, who had pulled half a length ahead of Hobbs. Time, 10:30. Intermediate Double Scull—The Dauntless crew did not come to the line, and at the shot the Harlems caught the water first and pulled two lengths ahead before the eighth-mile was reached, rowing thortyeight strokes to the Crescent's thirty-sev-en and Institute's thirty-nine. At the stake lems close in their wake and the Institutes third. At the mile the Crescents were ahead, while the Harlems had dropped back of the Institutes. The Crescents had about three lengths' advantage. In the fin-P. won the Brewers' stake, worth $1,000, ish the Institutes increased their stroke, Second—Six and one-half furlongs. Tom the terrific forty-four stroke of Winnipeg a scant five feet ahead. Time, 8:431/2. Senior Singles-Final heat: McDowel caught the water first. Rumohr was pulling a stroke of 38, while his opponents were at 36. At the eighth Rumohr had half a length lead over Hackett and a quarter over Mc-Dowell. The men were wide of their stakes, and had to make long detours. Rumohr and Hackett started to turn the same flag, and the former, seeing his fault, crossed to his own stake. Hackett fouled him and put a hole in his boat, and Rumohr went ashore McDowell, in the meantime, was well started on his way home, with Hackett slightly in the rear. Hackett crossed the line four lengths ahead of McDowell. A protest was entered, and the regatta committee dis-qualified Hackett and ordered the race rowed over by McDowell and Rumohr to-

Senior Eight-oarded Shells-It was ten minutes after schedule time when the crews started. The Tritons were rowed out to the minute, the Minnesotas, 39, and the First Bohemians, 42. At the half mile it was a glorious race. All the crews pulled evenly, and the Bohemians had a lead of but slight consequence. At the three-quarters the men were all pulling like giants, and at the commencement of the last half mile the Minnesotas had dropped a little behind, while the Tritons had forged ahead. Their little coxswain was steering a course straight as an arrow, but the coxswain the Minnesotas had gotten his crew into quicker stroke, and they drew up so that the shells lapped. The Tritons pulled stiffly but Tesa, the coxswain of the first Bo hemians, had his cap off and was cheering on his men. Their crimson scarfed backs bent almost double, and the boat was sim-ply lifted out of the water by the efforts. Cheers filled the air, and, with a scant quarter of a length to the good, the Bohemians crossed the line before the Tritons, while the Minnesotas' bow bobbed a dangerous third. The time made was 7:39½, and it was one of the best eight-oar races ever seen in this country, not ten feet dividing the crews at the finish, and no clear water between them.
